

News Release

On December 31, 2009 Investigators with the Alexander County Sheriff's Office arrested Tina Dula, age 49 of Taylorsville with Misuse of 911 System. Dula was charged after she called 911 and told the dispatcher that she had been kidnapped. Officers found the vehicle in which Dula was a passenger. After investigating the incident, officers learned that Dula was not kidnapped. Dula called 911 because she did not want to go where her boyfriend was going. The male that was driving the vehicle was identified as Kelly Warren. Warren was charged with numerous driving offenses. Dula was allowed to sign her own bond. Her court date is scheduled for February 1, 2010.
